

CDV — Manning, George A. Manning enlisted as a Quartermaster Sergeant with Company F of the Cal Battalion which became part of the 2nd Massachusetts Cavalry. He was promoted on January 29, 1863 as a Captain of Company M. Manning was captured at Ankers' Shop in Virginia in an action that took the life of J. Sewall Reed. He spent the balance of the war as a POW in Confederate prison camps. The image is untrimmed with Manning's signature at the bottom margin. Holyland Washington D. C. backmark. Collection #589. SOLD

CDV – Henry H. Mattox of Iowa Hill, CA. He enlisted as a 19 year old miner on March 20, 1863. Mattox was mustered in as a private with Co. M of the Cal Battalion. He served through the war as a private and mustered out on July 20, 1865 with the regiment. This image was held in the Howe album. On the face is “Dead!” possibly indicating a post war demise, as Mattox survived the war. Collection #590. $100

CDV – William H. McNeil of the Cal Hundred. McNeil was from San Francisco and enlisted at the age of 21, mustering into Co. A of the 2nd Mass Cavalry on November 4, 1862. McNeil eventually became a corporal and survived the war, receiving his discharge on June 26, 1865. This is a post-war image that was contained in Wesley Howe's CDV album. It is identified by McNeil's sentiment at the bottom, and by Howe's notation across his breast. A war period CDV of McNeil also resides in this collection. Collection #591. $400
