

CDV – Standing view of Bugler Peter E. White, bugler for the Cal Hundred. He was promoted to his position with the storied Cal Hundred, on December 15, 1864 after the death of the only other bugler to act in the company, Alfred Lee (see Collection #499). He enlisted October 29, 1863 as a 29 year old private from San Francisco.

Image is colorized. White is standing and wearing his bugler's jacket with forage cap resting on a table beside him. The cap bears the upturned dragoon sabers device with Cal 100. Backmark is Hamilton, Photographer, Boston. Collection #502. SOLD

CDV – Seated view of commissary sergeant, Charles E. Benjamin of Company A, 2nd Massachusetts Cavalry. Benjamin enlisted in the Cal Hundred in San Francisco on November 16, 1862 as a 21 year old private. Benjamin was wounded at Mt. Zion Church and later thrown by his horse during fighting at Toms Brook, injuring his back. He was eventually promoted to the rank of Commissary Sergeant and survived the war, mustering out on July 20, 1865. Verso is signed in ink Charles E. Benjamin, Com Sergt 2d Mass Cavalry. #503. $450

CDV – Original CDV of Charles E. Benjamin, Company A, 2nd Mass Cavalry, identical to Collection #503 (above) but with better contrast and less corner wear. Made from identical negative, and without backmark. Verso is signed with ink sentiment, "Yours Respectfully Cha^s E Benjamin Co "A" 2^d Mass Cav." Collection #504. SOLD

CDV – Seated view of Corporal William H. McNeil of the Cal Hundred. McNeil enlisted in San Francisco at the age of 21, on November 4, 1862. He mustered in as a private in Company A, the Cal Hundred. McNeil was promoted to Corporal on March 23, 1863 and was discharged on June 26, 1865.

CDV is very fine with excellent image of McNeil, his hat jauntily canted on his head, his collar up and jacket partially open. His ink signature on back reads, "Wm H. McNeil Co A (Cal 100) 2d Mass Cav" with Brady backmark. Collection #505. SOLD

CDV - An unknown trooper from the Cal Hundred. Seated with Cav saber, excellent accoutrements visible, and with his Colt Army revolver resting beside his forage cap on the table at his right. The prop table and covering, and the drapery just visible at lower right are identical to the studio setup of many of the 2nd Mass Cav images. The trooper's forage cap bears the upturned Cav saber device with Cal 100 and 2 and A company and regimental insignia. No backmark. Collection #506. SOLD
