

CDV — Original seated view CDV of Zabdiel Adams who enlisted with the Cal Battalion, receiving an officer's commission as Captain of Co. L. He was 29. On March 7, 1864 Adams was promoted to Major and transferred to the 5th Mass Cavalry. He was wounded on June 15th of that year at Baylor's Farm, but survived the war.

This image is in near mint condition with outstanding clarity and contrast. Adams is seated, wearing a four-button sack coat with major's strap and slouch hat just visible on table. Backmark is "J. C. Moulton, Fitchburg, Massachusetts." Collection #508 SOLD

CDV – Bust view of Captain George A. Manning, of Co. M of the 2nd Mass Cavalry. Manning was captured on February 22, 1864 near Dranesville, Virginia in the fight that saw Captain J. Sewall Reed killed by Mosby's guerillas. Captain Manning spent the balance of the war in Confederate prison camps, being paroled on April 15, 1865 immediately after the surrender at Appomattox. Manning rejoined the regiment and was mustered out of service on May 15, 1865.

The CDV is in excellent condition with ink signature "Yours & Geo. A. Manning, Ex Major Cal Bat." It bears a Holyland, Washington D.C. backmark.. Collection #509 SOLD

CDV – One of the most published images of members of the Cal Battalion is this standing view of James N. Eby, of Company M of the Cal Battalion, 2nd Massachusetts Cavalry. Eby, originally from Carlisle, Pennsylvania, enlisted in California on March 20, 1863 as a telegraph operator.

CDV has clipped corners but sharpness and contrast are outstanding. His attire and accoutrements appear new and he is fully outfitted with gloves, shoulder scales, and his forage cap bears the upturned saber device with Cal Cav Bat and 2 over M. An outstanding image photographed with the ever present paisley drape and covered table props. Collection #510 SOLD

CDV – Vignette portrait of Sergeant John Robinson, Co. I, 2nd Mass Cavalry. Robinson had seen a year of service in the U.S. Navy early in the Civil War, serving on the USS Ohio and the USS Gemsbok. Originally from Halifax, Nova Scotia, he re-enlisted at the age of 20, mustering into the 2nd Mass Cav. CDV bears his ink signature with "Bogardus, NY" backmark. Collection #511. $300
