

CDV — Seated view of a cavalry trooper with Brady, New York backmark. This image was held in an album that contained a number of 2nd Massachusetts Cavalry images, with identical Brady markings. An identical image is found in Wesley Howe's album, marked H. Quantlow, Regt. Band. Sharpness and clarity are excellent with soldier staring to camera, his patterned ascot and distinct hairstyle belying his determined expression. Collection #521.

He was promoted to his position with the storied Cal Hundred, only after the death of the only other bugler to act in the company, Alfred Lee (see Collection #499) receiving the commission on December 15, 1864.

Image is slightly faded but very sharp. CDV bears no backmark. White is wearing a cavalry shell jacket and his characteristic bushy moustache. His faded ink signature appears at bottom, "Very respectfully, Peter E. White." Collection #523. $600

CDV – Excellent standing view of Samuel J. Corbett, cavalry trooper from the Cal Hundred who fought with the 2nd Mass Cavalry. Corbett enlisted from San Francisco at the age of 25, on November 10, 1862. He was promoted to Corporal then reduced to ranks for some unknown reason. Having mended his ways, he was promoted to Sergeant, but yet again reduced to the rank of private. Possibly to keep him out of trouble, Corbett was placed in the band. His tall and striking figure is evident in this image. Ink signature "yours truly, S. J. Corbett. 2nd Mass Cav band". "Chas. H. Danforth, Cambridge Mass" backmark with 3¢ revenue stamp. Corbett kept an excellent journal that exists today. Collection #522 SOLD
