

CDV — Bust view of Josiah A. Baldwin who enlisted at the age of 35 as a 2nd Lieutenant with Co. L of the 2nd Mass Cavalry. He was promoted to 1st Lieutenant on Feb 5 1864, and as Captain on Oct 20, 1864. Baldwin was wounded on Sept 19, 1864 at Winchester and discharged for disabilities on May 5, 1865, but after the war had ended. From the album of Wesley Howe, Baldwin is identified twice in Howe's hand. Backmark of Addis Gallery, Washington D.C. Collection #574 $400

CDV – From Wesley Howe's album, this is a standing view of George L. Barnes who was a carpenter, originally from Garnville, Iowa. He enlisted on March 12, 1863 with Company M of the 2nd Mass Cavalry. In March of 1864 he was on picket duty near Dranesville and was mortally wounded in a small skirmish. Barnes was buried at Arlington Cemetery, grave #12,094.

The image is sharp and bears Howe's id in two locations, with the added note "killed on picket." No backmark. This image was made at the familiar photo studio at Readville, Massachusetts. Collection #575. SOLD

CDV – Bust view of William D. Belknap of Company M of the 2nd Massachusetts Cavalry. Belknap was a 28 year old shoemaker who hailed from Youngsville, Pennsylvania and enlisted as a private on March 19, 1863. He was promoted corporal during the war, and mustered out with the balance of the regiment on July 20, 1865 at Fairfax Court House, VA.

The image is mounted into an oval vignette and signed at the bottom and on the reverse by Belnap with spelling absent the "k." Howe identifies him just below the oval in the same way. The image is faded but distinct. No backmark. Collection #576 $250

CDV – Standing view of James Connally (spelled Connely by Wesley Howe) of Company M of the Cal Battalion. Connally came out of New Orleans and was a 25 year old farmer when he enlisted in the Bay Area, joining Company M. He mustered out with the regiment at Fairfax Court House in 1865. This image is one of two identical photographs to be contained in Howe's album. Unlike its partner, it bears Howe's identification in period ink "J. Connely." A Washington D. C. backmark. collection #577. SOLD

CDV – Standing view of James Connally (a companion image to collection #544). Connally was a farmer from New Orleans
Collection #578. $250